Fares on suburban railway (HÉV)

Different tickets and passes can be used for travel on Budapest and suburban sections of HÉV lines. The following stations mark the boundary of Budapest:

- H5: Békásmegyer
- H6: Millenniumtelep
- H8: Ilonatelep
- H9: Szabadságtelep

(H7 suburban railway is located entirely within Budapest.)

Budapest pass is only valid on the Budapest sections of HÉV lines; the single ticket and the block of 10 tickets; the Budapest 24- and 72-hour travelcards.

HÉV ticket is valid only on the suburban sections of HÉV lines.

Pest County Pass and Hungary Pass are valid on the entire length of HÉV lines; as well as the Pest County24 and Hungary24 day tickets.

Unique rules:

- BKK passes and tickets – purchased in advance – are also valid for travel between any Budapest station on the H8 suburban railway and Kistarcsa, Kórház.
- In case of transferring between HÉV lines H8 and H9 at Cinkota – if at least one of the departure or destination stations is outside Budapest – it is sufficient to pay the fare for the Budapest section only once.
