

Special conditions of MÁV-START for SCIC-NRT applicable from 1st March 2017

The following special conditions of carriage are valid for international railway tickets issued by foreign RUs to Hungary and for the international railway tickets issued in Hungary. The MÁV-START's special conditions of carriage are valid for the lines of GYSEV as well.

1. International Tickets

1.1 Purchase in advance

In principle international tickets cannot be issued more than 3 months before the first day of validity. (SCIC-NRT 6.1)

1.2 Ticketing provisions in case of more passengers

In the Hungarian section of an international journey the passenger should have international ticket from a Hungarian departure station to the international tariff border point or from the international tariff border point to a Hungarian destination station. (SCIC-NRT 5.2; 12.6.4)

2. Seat reservation

In principle reservations cannot be issued more than 3 months before the departure date of the journey. (SCIC-NRT 8.)

2.2 Purchase of the reservation

In Hungary the reservation can be purchased only together with the ticket or if the passenger already has a valid ticket for the required section. (SCIC-NRT 8.2)

2.3 Trains with compulsory reservation

In case of travelling on a train which runs with compulsory reservation, passengers should have valid ticket and seat reservation as well. (SCIC-NRT 8.2)

3. Trains with compulsory reservation and supplement

Passengers should pay supplement for InterCity and express trains in Hungary.

For domestic trains with compulsory reservation the supplement – which contains also seat reservation – may be issued from the international reservation system. Passengers travelling with international tickets don't need to buy „fast train” supplement.

Supplement for passengers travelling with international ticket

On border-crossing train (in case of international travel):

Passengers travelling with international tickets do not have to pay any supplements, except for the reservation fee if it was compulsory in international traffic.

Travelling in domestic relation on a domestic train running with compulsory supplement:

Passengers travelling with international ticket on domestic route (both the departure and arrival stations are within the territory of Hungary) have to pay the compulsory supplement (including seat reservation). (SCIC-NRT 12.2)

4. Buying tickets

In Hungary the official currency is Forint (HUF). In principle during the payment process MÁV-START converts the euro (EUR) prices into Forint. The conversion rate is published in international ticket offices and on the company's website.

Calculating the forint price, MÁV-START rounds the price of each ticket into whole number. In case of cash payment the total payable sum is rounded into 5 forint.

At many international ticket-issuing points paying for international tickets and reservations is possible in euro as well, not only in Forint. MÁV-START cannot accept euro cent coins. In case of overpaying the change is paid in forint.

Tickets purchased via Internet can be paid only in Forint.
(SCIC-NRT 12.1)

If passenger who leaves Hungary cannot buy an international ticket because the international ticket office is closed, have to pay on the train the normal NRT fare from departure station to the border point and the following surcharge:

- if the closing is out of published opening hours, 30 EUR,
- if the closing is within the published opening hours, without surcharge.

5. Checking the data on the ticket

Passengers have to check travel information is shown on the ticket in the ticket office (validity, class, route etc.). In case of any mistake the ticket will be changed.
(See also point 16.)

6. Travel of children

In Hungary children under age of 6 years can travel for free of charge, if a separate seat is not occupied.

Children above the age of 6 but under age of 14 years should pay child fare.
(SCIC-NRT 12.3)

Travelling by a train with compulsory seat reservation, children are required to have the same reservation as adults.

7. Children without adult attendant

In international traffic children under age of 10 years cannot travel without an adult attendant. Children above age of 10 years, travelling without attendant, must have a Parental declaration (See Appendix 2).

The ticket inspector may ask the Parental declaration from children travelling alone. If a child travels without attendant and Parental declaration the train staff can inform the authorities.

Appendix 1 shows the samples of railcards issued by MAV-START which entitle their holders for RAILPLUS reduction.
